

DYNAMITE FOR THREE SALOONS

Temperance Reformer Has a New Way of Doing Business.

IOLA, Kansas, July 10.—The saloons in West street in the heart of the business section of Iola were wrecked with dynamite early today.

Much damage was done to other property in the vicinity and the loss is conservatively estimated at $100,000.

J. E. Thorpe, the owner of one of the saloons was injured but not seriously. The dynamite was exploded by some temperance reformer. No arrests have been made.

The wrecked saloons were known as the Red Light, the Blue Front and the Eagle.

There were three distinct explosions each of terrific force. Besides demolishing the three saloons the explosions damaged the Palace shoe store, the drug stores of Campbell and Burrell, and Cowan and Ausherman across the alley in the rear and shattered dozens of plate glass windows in the business section. The explosions were heard at Humboldt nine miles distant.

The Mayor has offered a reward for the miscreant, and called a special meeting of the City Council to consider the situation.

There has been agitation in Iola recently to close the saloons which have run openly in violation of the prohibition law, and Governor Hoch had been appealed to to aid in closing the places.

ALL MAY HAVE DROWNED

NO ANSWERS RECEIVED FROM CREW OF SUNKEN SUBMARINE BOAT.

PARIS, July 10.—Dispatches reaching the Ministry of Marine show that the authorities at Biserta Tunis continue their tedious efforts to raise the submarine boat Faifadet with the expectation of taking out the corpses of the imprisoned crew. Cables were again passed under the boat today, but the rescuers were unable to bring her to the surface. A large floating dock is now over the sunken boat, and it is hoped that this will permit of raising the submarine in other ways.

One of the last messages from the interior of the Faifadet was: "Hurry with the cable, the boat is sinking." Since then complete silence has prevailed within the diver's rope being unheeded. The supposition is that those who escaped being smothered were drowned.

She is now lying at the bottom, but it is expected will be refloated in time to leave for Sevastopol July 12.

JAPANESE SURE OF ISLAND

Certain They Can Take it From Russians at Once.

TOKIO, July 10.—"The announcement of the landing of a Japanese force at Saghalien Island and the occupation of Karasakorsk, followed by the northern fight of the garrison, has been received with great satisfaction by the Japanese."

The landing of the army at Saghalien marks the first entry of the Japanese upon Russian territory proper.

The Japanese have expressed themselves pleased to be again in possession of the island declaring that they have long felt that the bargain under which they relinquished the place forty years ago was unsatisfactory.

The Japanese express belief that they will speedily control the entire island as they regard the garrison there as being incapable of serious resistance and are confident that it will certainly be captured.

INDIANS MADE VERY ANGRY

PLAN TO MAKE A FIGHT AGAINST THE STATEHOOD MEASURE.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., July 10.—The Indians are wrought up over the discovery that the list of delegates from Indian Territory to the Statehood convention, which is to meet at Oklahoma City on July 12, fails to contain the name of a single Indian. The delegations it is asserted, are made up almost exclusively of politicians.

As a result of the Indian leaders' discovery, contesting delegations will be sent from most of the districts and they will hold a meeting to repudiate the whole thing and send a delegation to Washington to lobby against Statehood at the next session of Congress.

BODY OF UNKNOWN FOUND ON MARSH

The remains of an unknown white man were found this afternoon on a marsh near Warm Springs.

The deceased was apparently a hunter and probably came to his death through drowning. He had on buckskin gloves and blue and white shirt and hunting shoes.

The deceased was probably dead about two months. A $1 bill was found on him and also a withdrawal card from the Longshotmen's Union of San Francisco.

The remains were unrecognizable but an effort will be made to establish the identity of the dead man at Centerville where an inquest will be held by Coroner Neumann.

MORE TIME FOR ZIMMERMAN

ROBBER OF CENTRAL BANK MESSENGER IS NOT SENTENCED TODAY.

When the case was called, Attorney Jones who represents Zimmerman and who was to have submitted his reasons why a new trial should be granted the accused stated that the transcript of the testimony of the examination had not been completed hence he was unable to submit to the court his request for a new trial.

District Attorney Alvarado agreed that there should be a continuance for the reason mentioned by Attorney Jones so Judge Wells put the matter over until August 14 at 10 a. m. An earlier date was not given because for the reason that Judge Wells is going away on his vacation.

In the meantime Zimmerman remains in jail in default of the necessary bail money.

CAN'T MIX POLITICS AND RELIGION

Secretary Bonaparte Delivers an Address Before the Christian Endeavorers.

BALTIMORE, July 10.—Charles J. Bonaparte, the new Secretary of the Navy, made a striking address before the Christian Endeavor Convention in session here today. His subject was "Pure Politics and Religion."

"Many years ago a story was told of a well-known professional politician in this city now dead, who, on his return from church one Sunday, was met by a newspaper reporter, who remarked to him in substance:

"Mr. A, I do not understand how so regular an attendant at church as you are can be also so great an adept in stuffing ballot boxes, fixing juries and witnesses and plugging corporations."

"Mr. B," replied the statesman, "I never mix up politics and religion."

"Of late years the American people have shown a disposition sufficiently plain to be widely remarked to act upon a different principle, so many of our citizens are beginning to 'mix up' a good deal of what my late fellow townsman would call 'politics' and the result of this mixture is so unpalatable and unwholesome to those of his way of thinking that few words as to the real nature, causes and consequences of the phenomenal may be timely and not without interest."

"In truth the mixing up of 'politics and religion,' to which my deceased friend referred, constitutes one feature of a very rotatable popular movement in progress for some thirty years throughout our country."

"After the Civil War and the period of reconstruction the American people found time to 'take stock.' We were reminded by our tax bills that we had a Government, a fact our busy prosperous fathers could more than half forget during the two generations of steady internal colonization, and with this reminder came a growing measure of doubt and anxiety as to the practical merits in sober truth of the Fourth of July oratory, of all branches National, State and municipal of that Government under which he lived."

As always happens it proved easier to recognize evils than to discover remedies and in like accord with all human experience our search for the latter was hampered by the proffer of all sorts of wonderful nostrums, warranted by their respective advocates to usher in a golden age."

"But, with that plain, hard common sense, that distaste for sound and froth, that craving for facts and distrust of ideas and theories which have ever been the portion of English speaking folk, the people of our union have finally gained a fairly clear insight into the nature of our ills and are gradually, but steadily, learning what medicine will heal them."

"The underlying evil in the administration of our public affairs is simply dishonesty, our public offices are too often held by dishonest men, too often gained by dishonest ends, too often used for dishonest ends."

"What are we going to do about granting employees vacations? If we grant one of them a lay-off with pay, we've got to allow it to all of them; there would be no end to it. I think we ought to allow them a vacation ten days but with the proviso that when they are away, they must be some people in their places."

Supervisors Kelley and Horne agreed to the proposition, as did all the Supervisors, when he was informed as to what the other Supervisors had agreed to do.

The matter was brought up by Supervisor Mitchell, who asked:

LEFT HER HOME FOR A LOVER

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl Objects to Interference of Mother.

Mrs. Jeanette Brown, residing at 1370 Seventh street, reports that her sixteen-year-old daughter, Sophie, who is described as very prepossessing, has been missing since last Thursday. The interference of the mother in her daughter's love affairs is alleged to be the cause of the young lady leaving home and dropping from sight. The police have been called on to assist the distracted mother in locating her headstrong and pretty daughter.

Mrs. Brown told Chief of Police Hodgkins this morning that her daughter was receiving letters from a young man, and that she had clandestine meetings with the same individual. Mrs. Brown to prevent her daughter from falling in love at so young an age, attempted to persuade her to discontinue the acquaintance of her admirer, and also cease corresponding with him. The girl was obstinate and refused to do so. Words ensued, ending with the young lady indignantly stamping her foot and telling her mother that she was going to leave the maternal roof forever.

The mother is now speculating as to whether her daughter has allowed her fondness for romance to lead her in the direction of an elopement, or whether the young girl is attempting to make her own way in the world.

The missing girl is described as being very well developed and having a light complexion with blue eyes. The mother has had very serious trouble of late. Her husband died a short time ago, and since then there has been much sickness in the family.

HOW COUNTY EMPLOYEES CAN TAKE VACATION.

Supervisors Make the Rule That They Must Put Substitutes in Their Places.

Employees of the county who desire vacations during the summer months will be allowed a period of rest extending, however, only through ten days, and, during that period of absence, the employees at their own expense, must supply people to take their places in the departments in which they work.

That was the decision reached this morning by the Supervisors.

The matter was brought up by Supervisor Mitchell, who asked:

Chauffeur in War Party Taken to Prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—"You cannot arrest me. I am attached to the service of the Secretary of War," said George D. Litterland, chauffeur to Police Officer Thomas of the Panhandle force yesterday.

"We shall see whether I can arrest you or not," retorted the bluecoat, as

The Park Station for the misdemeanor of driving a car without a license. Litterland appeared before Judge Conlan this morning and made explanations which may result in his absolution.

The chauffeur came out with the Taft party especially to operate a car for the Secretary of War during the latter's visit here. When the party sailed he was left behind, as it is so intended to do any autolog in the Philippines. He was attached then to the service of Major Squires of the Army Signal Corps, and it was while piloting the Major's family through the park yesterday that he was stopped by the policeman and asked to show his license.

a lieutenant of police had told him that the insignia of the Signal Corps on the auto would get him through the police line. Thomas refused to accept the statement, and it was the chauffeur, declared that his connection with the Secretary of War should absolve him.

court asked him for the name of the police lieutenant who had advised him. The defendant was unable to recall the officer's name. Judge Conlan asked that an investigation be made intimating that if the truth of Litterland's statement was established, he would excuse him for the violation.

Hay's Title to Remembrance.

John Hay was a typical illustration of the polyglot stock of the average American. In his veins ran Scotch, English, German and French strains, and he probably had some admixture of Irish and Dutch in his make-up. Like Roosevelt he was half a Southerner, his father being from Kentucky. In a speech at a banquet of the Ohio Society in New York in 1903, Mr. Hay drew this exquisite pen picture of himself:

"A distinguished American," he said, "some time ago leaped into unmerited fame by saying, 'Some men are born great—others are born in Ohio.' This is mere pleonasm, for a man who is born in Ohio is born great. I can say this as the rest of you cannot without the reproach of egotism, for I have suffered all my life under the handicap of not having been born in that fortunate Commonwealth. Indeed, when I look back on the shifting scenes of my life, if I am not that altogether deplorable creature, a man without a country, I am, when it comes to pull and prestige, almost equally bereft, as I am a man without a State. I was born in Indiana, I grew up in Illinois, I was educated in Rhode Island, and it is no blame to that scholarly community that I know so little. I learned my law in Springfield and my politics in Washington, my diplomacy in Europe, Asia and Africa. I have a farm in New Hampshire and desk room in the District of Columbia. When I look to the springs from which my blood descends, the first ancestors I ever heard of were a Scotchman who was half English and a German woman who was half French. Of my immediate progenitors my mother was from New England and my father was from the South. In this bewilderment of origin and experience I can only put on an aspect of deep humility in any gathering of favorite sons and confess that I am nothing but an American."

It is said that Mr. Hay was rather ashamed of his "Pike County Ballads" in the later years of his life, but we are of the opinion that nothing he ever wrote will live longer in literature. They are crude and somewhat vulgar it is true, but they are racy of the soil and the time, and they sing a song timed to the rude chivalry of a bold and virtuous period. They are sagas of a hardy stock with ideals as noble as aimed the Knights of the Round Table. The red blood of a true manhood leaps through these lays. It will be long before "Jim Bludso," "Banty Tim" and "Little Breeches" cease to stir the pulses and kindle the ardor of imagination.

Mr. Hay has written more ambitious works—more graceful verse—but he has written nothing that so nearly touches the hearts of men. His "Life of Lincoln," while a valuable and interesting work, is now conceded not to be history in the true sense. Rather it is a rich fund of material for the future historian and biographer, but nevertheless a painstaking and conscientious contribution to literature.

Mr. Hay's claim to distinction as a diplomatist, taking the world over, will probably rest on his preservation of the autonomy of China at a moment when the dismemberment of the Empire seemed inevitable. Just as the cabinets of Europe had about reached the conclusion that the solution of the Far Eastern question lay in the dismemberment of China, and events were hastening to that result, Mr. Hay intervened and averted the partition of the most ancient empire in the world. It was a momentous stroke of statecraft, which will be felt for many generations to come. By reason of that successful coup the United States wields today a commanding influence in the Orient.

However, Mr. Hay's record of achievement is long and brilliant excluding his victory in the Chinese affair. The Alaska boundary, Samoa, The Hague Conference, South America, the Panama Canal, the Morocco question, the redress of Christians in Syria, the protection of Jews in Roumania and many lesser questions afforded a wide field for his talents and activity, and in dealing with none of them did his statesmanship fall below the high water mark of diplomatic genius.

General Linevitch has kindly confirmed his first dispatch stating that a Japanese battalion had been annihilated, but he thoughtfully adds the information that "our troops retired from the captured position." That seems to be the trouble with all Russian victories. Somehow the postscript fails to jibe with what precedes it, for it always represents the defeated Japanese as advancing and the victorious Russians as retreating. The stupid Japs evidently don't know when they are defeated.

California holds the palm for producing the largest quantity of oil, but she is still fourth or fifth in point of the value of oil produced. Last year the oil production of this State, according to the expert of the United States Geological Survey, was 29,694,434 barrels, valued at $8,265,434, an average of .279 cents per barrel. Texas produced 22,241,000 barrels, valued at $8,161,447, or .367 cents per barrel. The other big oil-producing States were Ohio, with 18,876,000 barrels; Indiana, with 11,339,000; Pennsylvania, with 11,300,000; and West Virginia with 12,644,000 barrels. The other States producing oil in commercial quantities are Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana and Kansas. Oklahoma and Indian Territory together produced 1,366,000 barrels. The total production of the United States was 117,063,421 barrels. This year's production in California promises to considerably exceed last year's output.

Really there should not be such tumultuous excitement over the neglect to invite Mayor Schmitz to the Taft banquet. Why, even Abe Ruef was not invited. Nor to Mrs. Eleanor Martin's reception either.

Secretary Taft's Visit

Evidently Secretary Taft went away from San Francisco with a better impression of himself than he brought with him—and the big War Secretary was not previously unpopular on this side of the continent notwithstanding his attitude toward the enforcement of the exclusion law. Out here people generally are of the opinion that if Secretary Taft has made a mistake he has made it from good motives. He has impressed all classes as a broad-gauged, upright, courageous man, sincerely desirous of promoting the welfare of the American people. His solicitude for the Filipinos has not injured his popularity nor lessened respect for him. His visit to the islands will probably be of benefit to our new possessions. It is to be hoped, however, that before he returns to Washington he will more clearly understand the position of the people of the Pacific Coast with reference to the Chinese. If he will investigate with more care he will discover that it is not race prejudice primarily that colors the opinions of Californians with regard to Oriental immigration. Secretary Taft has yet to appreciate the justification for the fear that the Pacific States may become Orientalized. But for the popular agitation which began thirty years ago against Chinese immigration there would probably be, at a moderate calculation, more than half a million Chinese in California today. Probably half the inhabitants of San Francisco would be Orientals, and all the lighter employments, including domestic service and manufacturing, would be monopolized by Chinese and Japanese. In such case the city's trade with the Orient would in all probability be much larger than it is now, but what a price would Caucasian civilization have paid for it!

Lawless Auto-Car Driving.

Complaints are continually coming to this office regarding the dangerous and unlawfully high rate of speed at which motor cars are run on the roads leading out of Oakland. Even within the city limits the speed ordinance is habitually violated, but it is on the San Leandro road that "scorching" is practiced to the greatest extent. The accident yesterday was the direct result of the reckless and illegal manner in which automobiles are driven. This defiance of law must be checked somehow. It is making the principal highway of the county a terror to people who are compelled to use it in the daily occupations of life. The worse offenders are non-residents of the county, but some citizens of Oakland and vicinity show almost equal contempt for law and the safety of others. As a rule persons who drive motor cars at a dangerously high rate of speed are merely out for pleasure, while the people they frighten and endanger are attending to some useful and necessary business. Thus the inhabitant who pays for the maintenance of the road finds the law impotent to protect him in its use for business purposes against its illegal monopoly by non-residents, who are merely out for a good time regardless of consequences. Unless car owners mend their ways, and show more respect for the law and the rights of others, it will become necessary for the county authorities to take drastic measures for the protection of the public. A couple of mounted policemen stationed on the road with special instructions to arrest every person who violates the speed ordinance or fails to observe the law of the road would exercise a chastening and wholesome influence on those afflicted with the "scorching" mania.

Now that Rockefeller has given Yale University $1,000,000, it will be interesting to note if President Arthur Twining Hadley will modify his dictum that the way to punish business cormorants is to ostracize them. The Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi is the only educational institution to date that has refused a donation on the ground that the money was tainted. Curiously enough, the donation was tendered by Andrew Carnegie and not by John D. Rockefeller. But there is a big difference between a million and $30,000.

THE ADVANCE GUARD

BY JOHN HAY.

(From "Poems by John Hay," published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co.)

In the dream of the northern poets,
The brave who in battle die
Fight on in shadowy phalanx
In the field of the upper sky;
And as we read the sounding rhyme,
The reverent fancy hears
The ghostly ring of the viewless swords
And the clash of the spectral spears.

We think with imperious questionings
Of the brothers whom we have lost,
And we strive to track in death's mystery
The flight of each valiant ghost.
The northern myth comes back to us,
And we feel, through our sorrow's night
That those young souls are striving still
Somewhere for the truth and light.

It was not their time for rest and sleep;
Their hearts beat high and strong;
In their fresh veins the blood of youth
Was singing its hot, sweet song.
The open heaven bent over them,
Mid flowers their life feet trod,
Their lives lay vivid in light, and blest
By the smiles of women and God.

Again they come! Again I hear
The tread of that goodly band;
I know the flash of Ellsworth's eye
And the grasp of his hard, warm hand;
And Putnam, and Shaw, of the lion heart,
And an eye like a Boston girl's;
And I see the light of heaven which lay
On Ulric Dahlgren's curls.

There is no power in the gloom of hell
To quench those spirits' fire;
There is no power in the bliss of heaven
To bid them not aspire;
But somewhere in the eternal plan
That strength, that life survive,
And like the files on Lookout's crest,
Above death's clouds they strive.

A chosen corps, they are marching on
In a wider field than ours;
Those bright battalions still fulfill
The scheme of heavenly powers;
And high brave thoughts float down to us,
The echoes of that far fight,
Like the flash of a distant picket's gun
Through the shades of the severing night.

No fear for them! In our lower field
Let us keep our arms unstained,
That at last we be worthy to stand with them
On the shining heights they've gained.
We shall meet and greet in closing ranks
In Time's declining sun,
When the bugles of God shall sound recall
And the battle of life be won.

WALKER BLAINE'S ADVICE.

A prominent Washington clubman says that in the days of the old University Club at the capital there was a certain objectionable person of the species of nouveau riche, who had succeeded in gaining admission to that club, now defunct, which was considered very exclusive.

One day this vulgarian became extremely noisy and offensive in the card-room; so much so that a certain indignant member of the club blurted out: "See here! If you'll resign from this organization, I'll give you $500." The objectionable person left the room in high dudgeon. Chancing to meet on the stairway Walker Blaine, the son of the then Secretary of State, the aggrieved man related the incident, adding: "Now what shall I do about this?" "I would advise you to stand pat," replied Mr. Blaine. "I think he will make it a thousand dollars."—New York Times.

HIS VIEW OF BERNHARDT.

Of all the stories told of the extreme tenderness of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, the following probably caps the climax: Two Boston men were talking about the famous actress during her last visit to the country, when one of them asked the other if he would like to "see" her. "Yes," was his friend's delighted reply. "Well, walk past that coupe and look in and you'll see her." The other did as directed, and then came back looking disappointed. "Didn't you see her?" inquired his friend. "I looked in and saw nothing." "Well, that's she!"—Cleveland Register.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER.

A young man asked a Brown county farmer for his daughter in marriage. The answer was: "Go into the orchard and bring in a parcel of apples. Give me one-half the whole number and to the mother one-half of the balance and have one apple over, and to the daughter one-half of the remainder and half an apple over, and have one left for yourself, without cutting an apple. Then if she is willing you can have her." He solved the problem, and how many apples did he bring?—Kansas City Journal.

RICHMAN'S ROMANCE—SWAIN'S STRANGE WAGER—EVENTS IN SOCIETY

How a Quick-Lunch Waitress Was Won By a Millionaire.

From waitress to millionaire's wife—Love, the leveller of all ranks, has added this as his latest exploit. As a result pretty Martha Mathilde Bernhardt, of St. Louis, Mo., now Mrs. James R. Broderick, will have a superb mansion to look after at Paradise, Baltimore county, Md., and her mind will be henceforth taken up with conquering the lions of the social world as she formerly made every customer of the restaurant in which she was employed in St. Louis her slave. Her husband, James R. Broderick, is a consulting engineer who has acquired a large fortune.

Romances there have been aplenty of the kitchen. More than one housekeeper has stepped from being bossed by a mere man to be his helpmeet. But this is the first instance on record of a millionaire marrying a waitress in a popular-priced restaurant like this one.

Several years ago business called Mr. Broderick to St. Louis. His concern, Broderick & Wind, had several contracts in view there, and he went to overlook the field. Dropping off the train, he espied an Eighth Avenue restaurant. The long trip had fagged him out and he wanted a chop or two, some coffee and a smoke.

The place was crowded. Black-robed, white-aproned waitresses dashed hither and thither, and he seemed ignored. But the scene was different enough from the tiresome ride to interest him, and he was in a reverie, when suddenly a sweet voice at his elbow aroused him:

"Your order, please?" Broderick turned to look into a pair of the sweetest blue eyes he had ever gazed upon. He blushed, mumbled out his order, and the little waitress hurried away, paying no more attention to him than she had to the other customers who were in her row of tables.

But though the waitress paid no attention to her customer it made no difference to him. He followed her toward the ordering counter with his eyes. Miss Martha Mathilde, accustomed as she was to use sometimes annoying stares of her customers, found little enjoyment in this. What James R. Broderick ate that day he doesn't recall. Indeed he remembers very little of what happened except that he really did eat. But he paid his bill and went away, the haunting memory of those blue eyes, those charming dimples and sweet lips refusing to be shaken from his thoughts.

Now James R. Broderick is thirty-five. Then he was thirty-two, and, business man though he was, he still was human enough to own up to one more grand passion. And there was enough in the recollection of his pretty waitress to make him think and think hard.

He was glad of it the next day when he discovered his work would keep him in the Mound City at least a week. And twice, sometimes three times a day he dropped into the Eighth Avenue restaurant for his meals. So long as Martha Mathilde waited upon him he was satisfied. But one evening she was not there. He became alarmed.

"Where is my regular girl?" he asked the waitress who took his order in a matter-of-fact way. "Oh! Martha," she said. "She's off. This is her night out."

Then James R. Broderick became confidential. He wanted to know the name of Martha; her whole name, where she lived and all about her. It was strictly against the rules for the other waitresses to tell, but tell she did, for she saw another beau added to Martha Mathilde's long list, and she told him everything he wanted to know.

When he left the restaurant that night he knew that his waitress was Martha Mathilde Bernhardt and that she lived in a small cottage on Caroline street and helped support her aged mother with the aid of another sister. Her father had been dead some years.

When Broderick left the Mound City he took his last meal at the restaurant. When he concluded he said: "Goodbye; I'm going home." Martha Mathilde knew the rules, too; that she should not speak to guests, but there was something in the serious tones of her customer that prompted her to say: "Goodbye; come again!"

That was the first and only thing Martha Mathilde had said to him except to repeat his order, and Broderick went away happy. The long trip to Baltimore seemed short indeed, for he was haunted by the recollection of the dimples about Martha Mathilde's lips as she bade him "Come again."

Whenever he could Mr. Broderick visited St. Louis and the little restaurant on Eighth Avenue. Martha Mathilde was always there; always politely greeting him, but nothing more. Then came last summer and the World's Fair. By this time Broderick had realized one thing above all others—that he loved his little German waitress, and he determined she should be his wife. But no engineering problem gave him half as much vexation or worry.

The Fair helped him. He suggested to Martha Mathilde that she should go out with him. He had lots of work there and was constantly on the scene. Finally after much argument, she was persuaded. She had known him then over two years, but that made no difference. She knew his name was Broderick, but that was all. When she did consent to go out with him it was with the strict understanding that her sister always accompany them as chaperon. Willingly, gladly Broderick consented to this, and the Bernhardt sisters and the tall-serious-looking, bearded contractor became well known figures on the grounds.

The Fair was over, however, only too soon for the contractor. But before he started East he told his waitress that he loved her. When he did Martha Mathilde showed her usual good sense.

"Go home," she said, quietly. "think it over. Then, if you still think you love me, let me know, and—well, then we'll see."

Broderick went home. He thought, indeed, he did nothing else but think. Then, when he wrote her repeated his proposal. Martha considered it; considered her position, of how her mother was to get along without her, of how she might help her little family by marrying this noble, serious contractor, for she did not know then he had means which would lift her mother and sister to affluence. Then she thought of his manliness, his goodness, his lovable ways, and ended, as all other loving women have, by saying "Yes."

Arrangements for the wedding were hurried. Broderick, always a man of action, wanted to carry her right back home with him. But Martha pleaded for time—and got it.

Therefore it was not to be wondered at that her former mates in the restaurant soon heard of her good luck and congratulated her accordingly. From the moment her engagement to the contractor and engineer was announced and a big diamond sparkled on her finger the amount of Mr. Broderick's fortune increased until it finally reached millions.

Not long ago the wedding took place at the bride's home. All of her former fellow-employees were present, as were many of her former customers. They all sent presents, too, and congratulations were heaped upon the lucky pair even to the Pullman.

At the station Broderick, embarrassed by the attention of his bride's friends, lifted her bodily from the platform to the Pullman and they became lost. Then the train whirled East.

In Baltimore suburbs is a handsome country home called Paradise. Here Mr. and Mrs. Broderick will remain throughout the summer, and possibly next winter, although there is talk of their living in an apartment hotel.

Paradise, with its great and grand appointments, is a bit different from the simple little home of the bride's mother in St. Louis, but she is expected to grace it even as she did her former home.

Of the azure ocean of love, and lave One's soul in the splendors that lift and save.

A gift certain to be enthusiastically received by the bride or young housekeeper is a trunk containing freshly laundered and neatly marked dishcloths, kitchen hand towels, cleaning cloths, cotton flannel broom cloths, flatiron holders, ironing board covers and sheets of unbleached cotton with which to cover the furniture on cleaning day, says the Brooklyn Times.

Dust cloths of dainty silkline and wash cloths with crocheted borders are tied in bundles with narrow white ribbon and meet the eye on raising the cover of the tray. For a more elaborate outfit cambric bags in which to hang gowns or suits of clothes in summer may be added, as well as numerous other articles more often included in the bride's traditional linen chest.

BETTER PIES THAN MOTHER'S TURNED OUT BY MACHINERY.

PHILADELPHIA, July 10.—Lovers of the great American dainty—pies—will rejoice to learn that a new era has set it for its unlimited production.

It is a far cry from the "pies mother used to make" to a superior product made by machinery, but this has been accomplished by a machine invented by a Philadelphian. For years there has been progress in almost every line of baking with the exception of the succulent pie. Bakers and practical inventors along those lines, who experimented, have declared that machine-made pies were as impossible as perpetual motion. There are so many steps in the operation that it would seem their contention was well founded. Undaunted by precedent, however, the Philadelphia inventor has continued his experiments for two years and at last has reached his goal.

The pie-making machine has been installed in a baking company's plant in this city, and is now grinding out a steady stream of pies of all kinds and varieties. With the machine an operator can now produce thousands of pies where he formerly turned out hundreds. Not only will this serve to cheapen production, benefiting the consumer by making it possible to use better materials, but, as most of the work is mechanical, absolute cleanliness and uniformity are assured.

The pie machine is long and narrow, being about ten feet by twenty inches. One man and three boys constitute the operating force, turning out sixteen to eighteen finished pies a minute. An electric motor furnishes power, while a gas jet keeps the forming dies warm.

Suspended over the machine is a tank, which holds a sufficient amount of filling for four hundred pies. An agitator revolves within and keeps the fruit from packing at the outlet.

After the "paste" for crusts has been properly mixed it is weighed and cut into proper-sized pieces by a dough divider. A tray full of lumps of dough for bottom crusts is placed at one end of the machine and another tray containing lumps for top crusts at the other end. At the rear is a stack of plates, automatically fed by a ratchet. A magnetized arm swings around, picks up a plate and places it on a die made to receive it. A piece of dough is placed on the plate and the next movement brings it under a die which forms the lower crust. Then the fruit is deposited from the tank and the plate moves forward. By this time another lump of dough has been flattened out and stamped with an initial—such as "L" for lemon—while an automatic bellows blows a puff of flour over the dough to keep it from sticking.

The next movement brings the filled pie and this upper crust together, one operator being stationed here to adjust the top cover if necessary. Then the covered pie comes under the edging die, which cuts off all scraps, and the pie passes forward on an apron, which leads to the oven. One motion succeeds another with such regularity that the finished pie is passing to the oven almost before one can grasp the idea and purpose of the machine. With no fuss and little noise the empty plate starts at one end and passes off the other end of the machine, a finished pie in less than four seconds.

Frederick S. Stratton and Miss Cornelia Stratton are at the exposition and have planned a hunting and fishing trip this summer through Klamath county, Or.

BOWLING

SPORTS

BASEBALL

A BASEBALL FABLE.

Once upon a time, dear readers, in a little country town, Dwelt two brothers, baseball players, John and Jeremiah Brown; Both were known as clever youngsters, both were fielders superfine, And the two most skilful batters on the Jaytown Centre "nine." And the loyal local rooters often swore, as rooters do, "Them there Brown boys is the slickest these here diggings ever knew!"

Jeremiah was a person always advocating peace, And had never been ejected from the grounds by the police. If the umpire double-crossed him Jeremiah used to sigh, But he never used a swear word—never asked the umpire why. During all the years he lingered in the nation's greatest game He had never made a "holler," though he once cried out "For shame!"

Brother John was somewhat younger, but he had a ready wit, And a sharper, scrapper player never made a two-base hit. When the "umps" fell down a little, when he called a ball a strike, John protested like a teamster driving mules along the pike, And accompanied his saying with a gesture now and then, And the umpire wasn't likely to repeat the offense again.

All the fans called John a "rowdy," hardly thinking what it meant, And allowed that Jeremiah was indeed a "perfect gent." John kept playing, kicking, scrapping, working out some foxy scheme, And is now a major leaguer, managing a champion team; While the courteous Jeremiah somehow failed to make his mark, And is now a genial cabman, driving "spavins" through the dark.

If I wished to point a moral, which I have no wish to do, I would ask you straight which brother is the wiser of the two; I would ask you very frankly, and expect a frank reply— Would you trade with Jeremiah? No, you wouldn't—nor would I. In the ball game of existence we must overlook no bets, And the man that wins the contest has to fight for what he gets.

WILLIAM KIRK, N. Y. American.

WHEN "DUN" LET IN A RUN.

During yesterday morning's game at Idora Park Dunleavy, Oakland's left fielder, detained the ball in his vicinity long enough for a man on first to circle the bags and register a run.

The official score gave him an error, and when "Dun" learned of it he was exceedingly wrath. He maintains that the ball got tangled up in a bunch of grass and would not leave his fingers. However, the official scorer says that Dunleavy had an easy chance to shut off the run at the home plate, and hence the following:

The ball came gently floating down
Light as a flake of snow—
Dunleavy picked the leather up
And then refused to throw.
"How beautiful," said "Dun," "is
The color of this leather—
It seems a hue both bright and fast,
Good in any weather.
And, too, the shape; how perfect is
The curve around this sphere!
I hate to let the globule go—
Methinks I'll keep it here!"
So "Dun" he held the ball and chinned
Out there among the daisies,
And all the time the runner skipped
Around the sacks like blazes.

EDDIE BURNS TACOMA TAKES BOTH BALL GAMES

There is still much discussion in the East over the referee's decision in that contest at Baltimore between Kid Sullivan and Battling Nelson. Billy Roach was the referee and called the bout a draw at the end of the sixth round although it was conceded that Sullivan had a decided lead over Nelson and was clearly entitled to the verdict.

The newspaper reports of that bout read that the audience hooted and hissed the decision and the referee was scored on all sides. Even though the battle took place more than a month ago the newspapers are still talking about the decision and Referee Roach, who had from Philadelphia, comes in for a good lot of criticism.

Reports are continually being received from Easterners on Kid Sullivan, what his chances with Britt are and the good points in his pugilistic make-up. A well known sport received a letter yesterday from Eddie Burns, who is considered an exceptionally clever boxer, in which Burns says Sullivan has a good chance to win his coming contest with Jimmy Britt on the 21st inst.

Burns is well known in San Francisco, having lived here a number of years, and it is said his judgment in such matters is excellent. He believed that Nelson and Burns says he has a better head and hits harder. Burns saw the bout between Young Corbett and Kid Sullivan, held recently at Baltimore, and he also saw the contest in this city between Jimmy Britt and Young Corbett and on these two battles he draws his lines as to the outcome of the coming bout between Sullivan and Britt. In his letter Burns advises his friend to have a bet on Sullivan and he concludes by saying, "If Britt is a pronounced favorite I shall have a good bet on Kid Sullivan."

SEATTLE, July 10.—Many craft gathered on Elliott Bay to witness the race between the Gwendolyn of Seattle and the Machine of Vancouver. B. C. for the cup offered by William Mackie of London, and won last year by the Gwendolyn.

The local yacht crossed the tape winner for the second time, the Machine being delayed 8 minutes by the breaking of a gaff.

The two boats started at 2:40 p. m., and the winner crossed the finish at 4:30 p. m., sixteen minutes ahead of the Vancouver yacht.

TACOMA, Wash., July 10.—By winning yesterday's double header Tacoma put an awful crimp in San Francisco's pennant aspirations. The Seals should have taken both. In the morning in Graham was fined and ejected for a foul ball. In the afternoon he was hit over first base. Wheeler's hit over first base. Goshauer became offended at what he considered a bad called strike and threw his bat at Slats. That cost him $15, and he was also charged to the full amount. Hildebrand was shifted into short and his error in the seventh gave Tacoma one run.

Both pitchers were hit hard. Lynch stole home in the second and Sheath tried to tie the score in the ninth on a like play, but Hogan put him out. Nealon spiked himself, Wilson replacing him, but he was able to play in the afternoon. With a regular line-up it was anybody's game.

In the afternoon Hitt put it all over Tacoma, while Thomas was hit hard. Singles by Spencer and Waldron. Wheeler's pass and Hildebrand's two-bagger gave the Seals a start, but after the Seals shifted into short and his error in the seventh gave Tacoma one run.

The seventh inning found Sheehan getting his third hit. Nordskye drew a pass. Hitt threw Eugene's drive to Irwin to nail Sheehan. The ball was not fielded and went to the bleachers, both runners scoring. Attendance, morning, 1200; afternoon, 3000.

SEATTLE LIKE BAND OF BOYS

SEATTLE, Wash., July 10.—Seattle's errors yesterday came in the pinches and they came in generous proportions when Portland needed help. Fitzpatrick pitched good enough ball, but he was tame in his delivery. Dashwood's work was weird. He stopped things in the ninth inning, after fielding Corbett's hit but too late to head him off, and heaved the ball into the grass behind the right field bleachers. Corbett came clear around on the throw. Later in the same inning, Kane made a three base throw after fielding Van Buren's bunt. Seattle's lone run was earned. Mc Hale hitting for two bases and Hall sending him in with a single.

A little intelligent work behind Fitzpatrick would have shut out Portland, but in the field Seattle played like a town-lot aggregation. Score, Seattle 1, Portland 3.

OAKLAND TEAM IS WEAK IN PITCHING DEPARTMENT.

Looks Like Morley Has it Easy.

With the retirement of Henry Schmidt for a period of thirty days, and the lack of condition shown by Oscar Graham, the Oakland team is at the present time weak in its pitching department.

There is Iberg and Hogan, both of whom operated on the mud hill yesterday, and both were touched up by the men from the South.

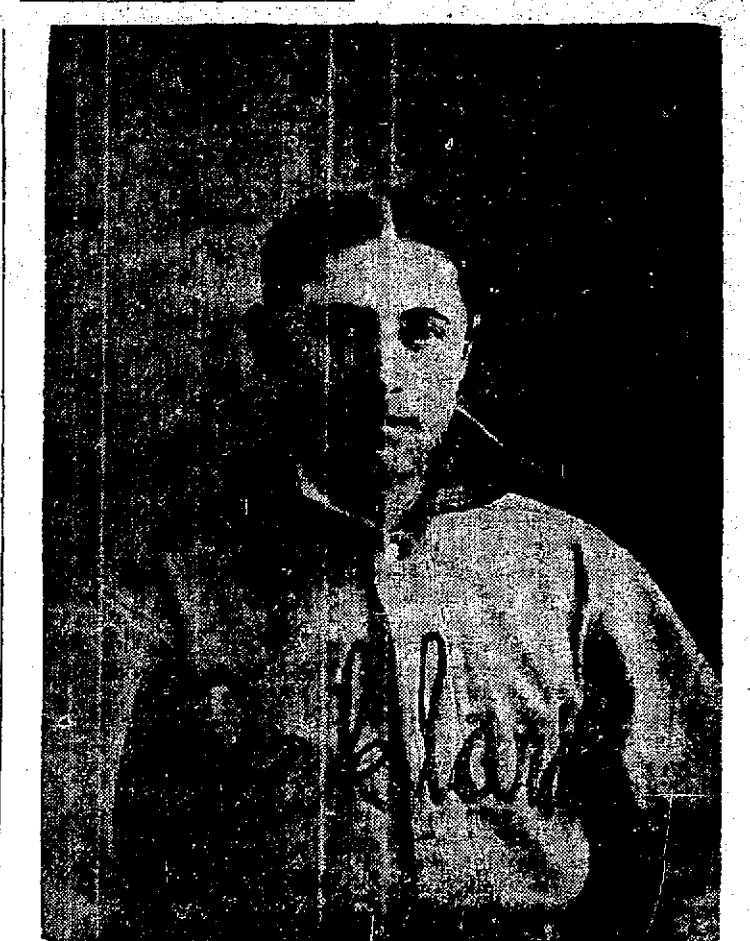

In the morning Hogan was found for twelve base hits, two of which were double cushion shots.

In the afternoon Morley's men lanned out Iberg's offerings an even ten times, so with the pitching department in a weakened condition, and Jule Streib recovering from illness, Oakland does not stand much chance against Los Angeles.

During Straib's absence Doctor McKimman Oakland's remaining twirler, has been occupying first base. He played that position in both of yesterday's games and did it well. The doctor can play almost any position on the baseball diamond.

He was also there with the stick yesterday. In the morning game he hit out a single bingle, and in the afternoon the official scorer gave him a couple of hits.

Graham's retirement of a period of thirty days for his assault on Pitcher

HENRY SCHMIDT, Oakland's pitcher, who has been fined and suspended.

Hogan is not worrying him in the least. He has several offers from minor league teams to pitch during his enforced rest from Oakland. He has been offered $35 a game, and so can easily get enough for a meal ticket.

OF INTEREST TO AUTO PEOPLE

John D. Rockefeller can travel seventy-five miles in his automobile over his estate in Westchester, without running twice on the same road. He has not yet offered the use of his grounds for an international race.

A paradoxical claim is made that the new cars selected for the Vanderbilt cup race is safer because the turns are more dangerous. The argument is that the sharpness of the new turns renders the most dangerous dangerous to passenger vehicles and thirty miles of course, they made the turns at full speed and took chances.

Electric vehicles still have a great future before them, according to Hiram Percy Maxim, the electrical engineering expert, who is now the chief engineer at the Columbia factory in Hartford, Mr. Maxim holds that while gasoline motors are the best for sport, the electric motor is the best for the utilitarian purposes of cities, because the great majority of such service comes within the limit of a few miles. He says that the electric motor and of the electric storage battery to understand why.

Under the new regime in the American Automobile Association, the relation of it to the American Motor League has changed and there is now a more definite rivalry between them. Originally, the A. A. A. was the organization of clubs, and the A. M. L. the organization of individuals. Now the A. A. A. has begun an active campaign to obtain individual members and is distributing touring information among its members, as the League has done.

To change from the top speed to a lower one in some types of cars, it sometimes facilitates the operation to momentarily let in the clutch at the same time that the change-speed lever is worked.

Love laughs at locksmiths, but a Yale lock attached to each door of a side entrance tunnel will sometimes prove a deterrent to the chauffeur who wants to take out a party of friends. To be sure, some "nasty friends" may climb over the doors, but when the ride in borrowed cars, they are not seeking notoriety, and that method of entrance and exit is not always convenient in a public place.

It is of immense importance to novices in automobilism to remember that unless the best oil is used, it carbonizes and deposits on the piston head, the valves and the cylinder walls. It is allowed to accumulate in any quantity, it will hold the heat of the explosion and prematurely ignite the next charge, and cause knocking. It also clogs up the grooves in which the piston rings work, filling up the clearing space between the rings and the piston block. If good oil is used, it will not clog, even if a superabundance is given.

STABBED BY A STRANGER.

NEW YORK, July 10.—John Costello, a merchant of this city, has been fatally stabbed at his summer home on Staten Island. He was entertaining a number of guests and it is said, left the house to return remarks made by a passerby, one of whom is believed to have stabbed him.

A pessimist thinks it's an ill wind that blows anybody good but himself.

OSCAR GRAHAM BATTED OUT OF BOX.

SAN JOSE, July 10.—The Stockton team of the State League defeated the champion San Jose club in a one-sided game yesterday. Oscar Graham of Oakland started to pitch for San Jose, but the Stockton bunch batted him out of the box in the first inning, making a total of ten hits for sixteen bases off his delivery. McGreggor, a high school pitcher, followed him in the box and allowed but three hits.

Ferguson, who was on the slab for the visitors, had the local team at his mercy and allowed but five hits, three of which in one inning, with two errors, were responsible for San Jose's runs. Jimmy Hogan played short for San Jose, but his arm was in bad shape. Score: R. H. E. San Jose..... 3 5 10 Stockton..... 12 13 2 Batteries—Graham, McGreggor and Kent, Ferguson and McMurray.

Articles of agreement have been signed and forfeit money posted with Harry Corbett for the match between Bobby Ryan and George Peterson, which is billed to take place at Colma on the evening of July 15.

Tim McGrath, who took George Herbert to Butte to fight Ryan, reached San Francisco yesterday from the Monterey town. With him came Ryan and Johnny Reed, his manager, and Herbert. A great fight is predicted by McGrath, who has seen both men in the ring, and while Tim thinks that Ryan will win, he says the contest should be a close one and one that will give the fight fans a run for their money.

PACIFICS WIN GAME OF CRICKET.

The Alameda and Pacific Cricket Clubs met in a match game at Alameda yesterday, the Alameda boys going down to defeat by a margin of forty-seven runs. The game was evenly contested, the winning hit being made shortly before the call of time. The Alamedans went to the bat first and accumulated 124 runs before the side was disposed of. Wheatley and F. Croil were the chief contributors, scoring 34 and 24 respectively. Foster and G. Croil also ran into double figures, Foster making 15 and Croil 16. Wheatley played the best game for his side, his hitting being very clean. Dr. Taylor did the best bowling for the Pacific, coming out with the fine average of 3 for 15.

Wilkes and Lannowe opened the innings for the Pacifics and were responsible for 63 runs before they were separated, Lannowe being caught after making 25. Wilkes got transferred to the pavilion shortly after having 43 to his credit. Elliot and Wilding then got together and between them the score rose rapidly, when Wilding was caught in the slip—3 for 39. Lewin made three before being clean bowled by Staib, and Logan joined Elliot. The winning hit was made shortly afterwards and the whole side was disposed of. The Alamedans were then successful, Alameda bowler, capturing three wickets at the expense of sixteen runs.

COURT TO TAKE UP FRANCHISES

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Into a court brief in an obscure case, relating to the granting of a small street railway franchise, covering half a dozen city blocks, have been injected questions which affect the entire city street railway system of Los Angeles, and may result in annulling the law lately passed by a vote of the electors of the city limiting the life of, all street railway franchises to twenty-one years.

The arguments of the railway attorneys, also include the contention that municipal ownership of street railways is prohibited by the State Constitution, and that the Mayor of the city has no legal right to pass upon any railroad franchise granted by the City Council.

The questions raised in this test case will be passed upon by the Superior Court, and if the finding is unfavorable to the railroads, it is expected that they will carry the case to the State Supreme Court for final hearing.

It is the claim of the railroad's attorneys that the twenty-one-year franchise limitation law is unconstitutional and that the City Council has the right to grant franchises for any length of time desired up to fifty years.

The management of the Oakland baseball team has fined Henry Schmidt, pitcher, $100, and, in addition, has given him a lay-off of thirty days. This is Schmidt's last visit there. The quarrel occurred in a saloon and during the argument, which was caused by Schmidt, it is said, Hogan had a couple of fingering behind him to the floor. Judging from reports of the affair printed in the northern papers, Meins has got what's coming to him.

FINAL SHOOT YOUNG SAILORS OF GUN CLUB. WIN THEIR GAME

The Empire Gun Club held the final shoot of the season at Alameda Point yesterday. There was a good attendance. The weather was perfect and good scores were the order of the day. One accident occurred to mar the pleasure of the day, but aside from that all had a very enjoyable time.

Just at the close of the last event the secretary of the club, J. B. Hauer, fell from the roof of the clubhouse and sustained a very severe fracture of the left arm. Willing hands assisted him to the first train and across the bay to the French Emergency Hospital.

The following are the scores for the day in the different events:

Club championship race, 25 birds—Maestick 9, Mastick (back score) 6, William Janssen 15, A. J. Webb 24, Webb (back score) 24, W. A. Sears 22, W. A. Sears 20 yards, 11; W. A. Sears (back score), 20 yards; 10; A. J. Webb, 22 yards; 13; A. J. Webb (back score), 22 yards; 13; A. J. Webb (back score), 22 yards; 13; J. E. Hauer, 29 yards; 10; Iverson, 20 yards; 14; Iverson (back score), 20 yards; 14; William Janssen, 18 yards; 13; Fred Feudner, 20 yards; 13; Fred Feudner (back score), 20 yards; 13; L. H. Allen, 18 yards; 11; Iverson and Webb tie for high average for the season in this event, with Fred Feudner third.

In the Sweeney record medal race A. J. Webb and Fred Feudner each scored 19 straight. In the shoot-off the medal was won by A. J. Webb.

117 IN SHADE; HEESEMAN'S WIN.

The clever Heeseeman team defeated the Fresno bunch by a score of 7 to 2 yesterday at Fresno. The game was interesting, although it was never in doubt. The Heeseemans might have made some more runs, but for the weather, which was intensely hot, being 117 in the shade.

Captain Gulgoly of the Heeseemans got two nice hits, while Davy Walthour was the star of the Fresno bunch, knocking out a nice single. The Fresno bunch was a three-bagger and a single.

Nine hits were garnered off the Fresno pitcher, while Tyson allowed but five scattered hits.

For Fresno, Schimpf, who has won a place in the hearts of the Brits over a nice single.

Jim Hanna's dream of a pennant winning Heeseeman team may yet be realized.

C. H. HOLT DEAD

Charles H. Holt, the well-known manufacturer, died at Spokane last Friday, after a brief illness. The deceased left San Francisco two weeks ago for a business trip in the north. His daughters, Grace and Edith, accompanied him and they were with him during his illness. Word was sent to his son, Parker, who was in this city and came to see his father during his last days. Mrs. Holt died three months ago at the family home in San Francisco.

The deceased was a native of Concord, N. H., and 60 years old. He came to this State when a young man and engaged in the hardware business with his brother. Success attended their business, and later they opened a factory at Stockton for the manufacture of carriage materials and agricultural implements. It is one of the largest in the State.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon from the family residence at 2545 Pacific avenue. The interment will take place at Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland.

JUMPED TO HIS DEATH

Driver Did Not Wait to Help Men He Ran Down.

At Irvington, three men, one of them dangerously, two of them painfully injured, lie waiting for the authorities to remove them to the hospital. They are being punished for their misfortune. They say it was the driver of automobile "Cal. 2323." The injured are Al Hurch, plumber; F. Hurd and C. E. Morgan.

The accident occurred yesterday afternoon. The injured men were in a buggy, which was being driven by Arthur Neely, on the highway at a farmhouse near Irvington, on the highway. The buggy had been repairing a windmill. Arthur Neely, Cal. 2323, whizzed past and the horse the artisans were driving took fright and ran away. All were thrown out of the buggy and Arthur escaped with slight injuries, but Hurd sustained fractures of two ribs and internal injuries. Hurd was killed. The accident hurried away, leaving no sign of the time.

At Irvington, the general situation is ever, was another automobile. The occupants took the injured into their homes and cared for him until he was able to get to the hospital, where they were placed in care of physicians. At a late hour Kird was still unconscious. The outcome of his injuries is problematical.

TELLS ABOUT THE PRICE OF STOCK

Editor TRIBUNE—In THE TRIBUNE of July 1 appeared an article over the nom de plume of "The Kernal" in reference to the purchase

NAIVE, in reference to the purchase of 5,000 shares of Bank of California stock by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, the details of which, as given, were incorrect and misleading.

I am district manager of the Mutual Life of New York for Alameda county, and am also a subscriber and reader of your valuable paper, and I do not believe that THE TRIBUNE would willingly publish an inaccurate or erroneous statement. Hence this letter.

The Bank of California did issue 10,000 shares of new stock, and the stockholders of the bank were offered the new stock for $350 a share. This figure was made to holders of old stock only. The new issue was quickly taken by the old stockholders, as Bank

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The commission appointed by Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor to make a thorough examination of the Chinese exclusion and immigration laws met today and outlined its work. The commission consists of Lawrence O. Murray, assistant secretary; Edward W. Sims, solicitor, and R. K. Campbell, law officer of the Immigration Bureau, all of the Department of Commerce and Labor. It will secure copies of all treaties, immigration laws, decisions of the Treasury, customs and the Supreme Court, and all rulings and regulations that have been made on the subject of Chinese exclusion.

The duty of the commission is to see what changes, if any, are necessary in the rules and regulations of the department, and to make such changes. It has taken in view of the complaints of the harshness and unreasonableness of such regulations.

of California stock was held in the market at $425 and up to $440.—(not $340, as "The Knave" quoted it.)

Later the directors urgently requested the holders of the new stock to part with one-half of their holdings for $375 per share, as an opportunity presented of disposing of 5,000 shares in one block to a very desirable party. They complied, and the Mutual Life of New York invested $1,875,000 more money in California.

Further, no Bank of California stock has been sold to any other outsider for less than $422.50 and $425 per share, and sales have been made prior to and since the issue of the new stock at these figures, hence the profit in the deal for the benefit of the policy-holders was about $250,000, not such a bad financial transaction as "The Knave" would have us believe.

SOCIALISTS WILL FIGHT IN COURT      WOMAN HURT IN AN ACCIDENT

Of the country in which he has been living for the past seven months he has only praise. "While it is not a good country for a man who has no certainty of an income, it has a peculiar attraction for anyone who has a steady income." "True, the thermometer rises to a point that would seem instant death if it happened in a climate like this. Yet there is no discomfort experienced. One can sit under the shade and be comfortable on the hottest day of the year. The air is as dry and pure as it can be and the temperature is as good and pleasant as the air is seen to move with a fan. In the land of the Rio Grande many wonderful things are seen in the way of nature's freaks. If one is pleased

"Eighteen months, but since I have seen the river rise twelve feet in an hour and keep it up for several hours, but of course that was due to a cloudburst. But all these things serve to keep one interested. You can't get bored here. I don't know how you live there for a while you get something like the Mexicans and live for today and let tomorrow take care of itself. It's a great country to live in for a time but I suppose one would tire of it, but as yet I have not experienced that feeling, though for a time after I first went to the States I did give a good deal of thought to going back. I have been lifted up and found myself back in Oakland."

FATALITIES FROM HEAT.
NEW YORK, July 10.—Telegrams from prefects of provinces to the Italian Minister of the Interior announce great number of fatalities due to the heat, according to Rome dispatch to the Herald. In the province of Alessandria, Piedmont, there were 8 cases of sunstroke and twelve deaths. At Palermo, in Sicily, 28 sunstrokes and five deaths. In Messina, 17 sunstrokes and two deaths and at Bari eight sunstrokes and two deaths. A Berlin dispatch states: The record breaking heat is paralyzing a branch of trade, as the shops are closed, and two hundred persons left the city for cool summer resorts. He who has hope for tomorrow seldom thinks of today.

spoke was the sense of the meeting, which was essentially an anti-Mott affair, that all should unite for the common cause and establish their alleged constitutional right to hold meetings in public places. A large and substantial collection was taken for the purpose of supplying bail for those speakers arrested in future, and the statements was made from the platform that an open-air meeting was to be held nightly, and if necessary the City prison and court calendars will be choked with Socialist cases until they are victorious. H. H. Lilienthal was arrested last night for holding the meeting and he was promptly un-bailed out by his adherents.

WATERING TROUGHS.
Editor TRIBUNE:—Why has this city no water troughs for horses and dogs? I have tried to have the papers mention it years ago, but no one acts in a matter that seems everybody's business. The people who drive on the bad, dusty roads beyond city limits, bring dogs as well as horses. Where can the poor animals drink? The city should provide water troughs for horses, but even the untrained small boy is near a dog can't get a drink if he tries, but the other day one got into the trough on Broadway. Our amateur musicians would gladly give concerts (25 cents) if a bail

WHIST! ★ CONGRESS.
CHICAGO, July 10.—The fifteenth congress of the American Whist League will open at the Auditorium this afternoon with the starting of play for the Brooklyn trophy, the first event. Afternoon and evening sessions will be held each day until the 14th, when the final session will be held. The Brooklyn trophy is for the auxiliary associations of the League, and twelve players in the main event, the Hamilton trophy, which carries with it the National Tour championship, will start tomorrow afternoon while play for the Minneapolis trophy, representing the Eastern championship, will begin on Wednesday evening.

James G. Ballard, a clerk employed at "The Hub" was driving yesterday with his wife to Walnut Creek. The day was very warm and both occupants of the car were wearing light clothing. As the steep grade approaching the Fish ranch Ballard espied a little brook. He decided to get out to get a drink. He had left his wife in the buggy holding the reins while he went to the side of the brook. As he stepped out of the car the horse began to move, and as the rig was turned in the wrong direction it was too late to do anything. He had been in fashion. In doing so the buggy was upset, and before Ballard could come to his feet, the car had rolled over on its side. Those that were in the car were thrown out, and Mrs. Ballard lying prostrate on the road.

Ballard was very severely bruised, and it has been necessary to call a physician to attend her. Her condition is such that she must stay in bed, and she will have recovered. The horse sustained a number of cuts and bruises about the legs.

ENJOYING CAMP.

A merry party is enjoying outdoor life at Camp Bonita, near Pleasanton this year. Among the members are several well known people of this city, including George Gray, a real estate man of Oakland.

Camp Bonita is located on the bank of Sunol Creek, between Sunol and Pleasanton, and is a beautiful summer ranch, and since its establishment has become one of the most popular of the many camping grounds in Alameda county.

In addition to the large party of Oakland people who are spending their vacation at Camp Bonita, there is large representation from many of the interior towns of the county and also several hundred people from San Francisco. Many friends of those spending the vacation at the camp visited the grounds early this week and saw the beautiful grounds. Camp Bonita has a celebration of July 4.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. E. Collier of Cherokee, Ia. but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone I could not sit on a chair without a cushion, and suffered from dreadful backache, head ache and depression. In Electric Bitters they, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver, stomach, and bowels." With this object, Buencamino said, the board of editors was not to be divided. He gave an article from the Secretary replying to the strictures against the Administration made by

BANKER M'MULLEN BRAVE IN FACE OF TROUBLE.

Swam Into River in Horse Frightened At An Effort to Save a Woman's Life.

SANTA CRUZ, July 10.—The inquest over the body of Mrs. Charles Gray of Sunnyside, formerly Mrs. Amanda Monks, a famous Confederate spy, who met her death by drowning in Boulder Creek Saturday evening, was held by Coroner Morgan at Boulder Creek yesterday.

After hearing the testimony of Banker Robert McMullen, son of J. C. McMullen, of Oakland, Charles Gray, the husband of the dead woman, and Dr. Moffatt, the jury rendered a verdict to the effect that Mrs. Gray came to her death by a fall from a high, unprotected bridge by reason of her horse taking fright at McMullen's automobile, becoming unmanageable, and falling off. The cause of the accident is laid almost wholly to the condition of the road, and McMullen and his party, who were returning from the Big Basin Park in the automobile, are exonerated from blame.

The jury also recommended that the Supervisors at once remedy the condition of the mountain roads by providing proper railings on grades and bridges, in order to prevent such fatalities as that which took place on Saturday.

Mrs. Gray's death was due both to concussion of the brain and drowning, she having fallen down a very steep bank into the river. McMullen swam into the river, and aided by the dead woman's husband, brought her body to shore, where she lived for fifteen minutes.

Mrs. Gray is said to have been 55 years of age, and was married to her last husband in June, 1894, at Santa Cruz. She was formerly Mrs. Amanda

POPULAR COMEDY WILL BE SEEN FOR A WEEK AT LOCAL PLAYHOUSE.

Tonight a select cast of Bishop's players will be seen in the first stock production of Charles Barnard's pastoral play, "The County Fair," at Ye Liberty Playhouse.

This comedy, made famous by Neil Burgess, has been the greatest financial success of all the rural dramas during the last ten years.

Frank Bacon will be seen in the role of Aunt Abby, Mr. Burgess' role, and in his familiar way will give an artistic rendering of this strong eccentric, but lovable character.

He will be supported by Elmer Booth, Orval Humphreys, Lloyd Ingraham, Larders Stevens, James Gleason, Oza Wild, Irene Outtrim and Madeline Maxwell. "The County Fair" will be the attraction for the entire week, with the usual matinees Saturday and Sunday.

AUTOS IN COLLISION

I. W. Hellman Jr. Crashes Into Rear of Woman's Automobile

HAYWARDS, July 10.—A man supposed to be Isaius W. Hellman Jr., vice-president of the Union Trust Company of San Francisco, while guiding his automobile through Haywards yesterday afternoon at a speed said to be closely approximating a mile a minute, crashed into the rear of another automobile driven by Mrs. A. H. Merritt, and the five-limbed car occupied the latter machine narrowly escaped serious injury.

Mrs. Merritt was driving her machine in the direction of Alameda. She was accompanied by Miss Fox of Victoria, B. C., who is a guest at the Merritt home, near Mills College, and three other young ladies. Distinct above the noise of her own machine, there came to her the raucous "ching, chug" of another being driven at high speed and rapidly approaching from the rear. Turning Mrs. Merritt beheld another machine approaching, shrouded in a whirl of dust drawn up by the suction of its flight. Mrs. Merritt drove her machine close to the right edge of the road, giving all the room possible. With her hand on the wheel she saw the Merritt machine or miscalculated the speed and direction of his own, and smashed into the other from behind.

For a few seconds there was nothing to be seen but a mass of dust, but when this cleared away two badly damaged automobiles were revealed to sight, as well as six badly scared individuals. Mrs. Merritt was on her feet almost instantly looking after her friends, whom examination showed to be but slightly injured. Turning her attention to her machine she found that while its rear was badly smashed its mechanism was not damaged.

The front of Hellman's machine had driven its way under the body of that of Mrs. Merritt and had buckled to an extent, bruising the lower limbs of its driver, but it, too, proved able to navigate. Mrs. Merritt asked the name of the individual who had so unceremoniously broken up her party and was informed that it was Hellman of the Union Trust Company. As she left the scene Mrs. Merritt made a record of the number of his car, 2491. Mrs. Merritt is the wife of A. H. Merritt, general manager of the Coast Manufacturing and Supply Company, having offices at 830 California street, San Francisco, and their home is on Damon avenue, in the Seminary Park district.

Monks, and in her younger days was one of the most beautiful women in the State. She preserved her fine figure and good looks to the last. She had a most romantic history, having served as a spy with the rebel army for two years. She came to Livermore with her husband at the close of the Civil War, and later moved to the Santa Cruz mountains.

Mrs. Monks was the cause of a fatal shooting affair in Ben Lomond thirteen years ago, for which she was sentenced to life in the State Prison. In December, 1892, Mrs. Monks was keeping house for David Walker, between whom and some of the neighbors there was much bad blood. It is said, to jealousy of Walker on the part of other admirers of Mrs. Monks. One day, while Walker and Mrs. Monks were sitting in their home playing cards, Walker was shot through the heart with a rifle bullet from the open door. Bullocks was found guilty, and James Burns was charged with complicity, but later acquitted.

The evidence showed that either Bullocks or Burns, it was not clear which, stood against the house, while the other steadied a rifle on his shoulder, with which to take aim at Walker.

Mrs. Monks had been the cause of several other quarrels between her admirers, but this was the most serious case. Notwithstanding all this, hers was a very strong character, and she commanded the respect of all who knew her.

The accident has aroused the people of the county to the necessity of fuller protection for travelers on the mountain roads, many of which are at present guarded with guard rails at dangerous points.

devastated and ranches are being threatened by the flames. Hundreds of the ranch owners are working to save their property and check the spread of the fire.

The blaze started on Grano Ridge, in the Mocho Creek region, south of Livermore. The country, parched and dry from the long-continued hot weather, was like tinder, and the fire spread with wonderful rapidity. Over the Contra Costa ridge to the east and south it spread. Up toward Buckeye hunting lodge and over into Corral Hollow Creek it worked its way eastward and down Lone Tree Canyon it swept into the mountains, and out toward the San Joaquin Valley. Fortunately for the people of Livermore the wind carried it away from Livermore and into a section that is not so thickly populated. While the damage done is great, the loss of property would have been tremendous had the fire been directed into the grain fields and vineyards of the Livermore section.

A camp fire left by careless hunters is supposed to have been the cause of the conflagration, and the stockmen who have lost their grazing lands burnt over and have lost cattle by this fire are looking for the laws to cause the trouble. The stockmen of this section have an organization that is banded against hunters, for every year a fire of this kind is generally started through criminal carelessness upon the part of hunters. These fires not only injure the country, but cause a great loss to stock, the young cattle meeting death in the flames. The extent of this loss is never definitely known, even by the owners of the stock, and this fire, covering such an area, is bound to be an unusually damaging one.

CHARITY DELEGATES WILL MEET

Editor TRIBUNE: The National Conference of Charities and Corrections will be held this year at Portland, Or., July 15 to 21.

In 1899 the conference was held in San Francisco and this is the second time it has come to the Pacific Coast.

The most eminent experts and students of charities and corrections in the United States will be present and participate in the deliberations of the conference. This conference is the school of experience for all workers in the field of charity, and no one can afford to miss its inspiration. The program will cover a wide range and promises to be of unusual interest and value. It is an unusual opportunity to meet the leaders, to learn their methods and not least to show our appreciation of their coming to this coast.

We went this conference again some day in California.

While there we can also see the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The railroad rates will be one and one-third fare for the round trip to go and come at pleasure. There is a rate, however, of a special train leaving on Saturday night, tickets good for return within ten days after date.

If you contemplate going will you write Mr. W. A. Gates, 588 Parrott building, San Francisco, that he may send you any further information which he may receive? It is desired to secure a full list of those going.

FRANK J. SYMMES, Vice-President of National Conference, President of State Conference.

W. A. GATES, Secretary State Board of Charities and Corrections.

GOVERNOR SOON TO RETURN

Warden J. M. Page of the receiving hospital will leave today for Skaggs' Springs in Sonoma county. He will take with him his family and will be gone two weeks. Warden Page says that he has not been in the best of health for some time, and he has an idea that a plaster of mud from the mediated springs will restore his lost health.

THE MACDONOUGH.

Manager Guy Smith Burlesque Company Will Tells of His Trip to New York.

New York, July 4, 1905.

Editor TRIBUNE:—I arrived here last Tuesday night, five and one-half days direct from Oakland, with not a hot day in them all. That's marvelous for this time of year, you know. I found New York in the same place it was last year, in spite of the two big events of the year here, "the opening of the 'Subway' and 'The Hippodrome.'"

The one that strikes you the most forcibly as being the biggest thing of the two is that immense theater, "The Hippodrome," now called by everyone here "The National Theater." This place has been thoroughly exploited in all the newspapers in the country, so I will not attempt a description of it here. Suffice it to say that the actual seating capacity is 5883 seats. This is authentic as it is from my friend George Kingsbury, the manager of "The Hippodrome," and the night I was there the house (which was completely filled) was emptied in just 3 1/2 minutes. I stood on the stage with Mr. Kingsbury and timed it myself from the time the last curtain dropped.

The subway has ceased to be a curiosity now and is running along, carrying loads of passengers with no more excitement or trouble than do our own transit lines. The cars dismount and the wheels are the closest down there, the air being very foul. This condition has brought about a new kind of "Hippodrome" act. It is quickly cured, however, by a poison sold on nearly every corner on Broadway, and it is a relief to the eyes.

There are only three of the regular theaters open now and they are to run all summer. The "Hippodrome," with Jeff De Angeles and Little Barry in "Fausto," and the "Theatrical Club," with "The Hippodrome Girls." They are all great shows and are booked for the Macdonough next season along with a bunch of others that are sure to make Oaklanders sit up and take notice.

The three roof gardens are in full swing and plying a crowd of thousands nightly. New York is just like other places for running to a new thing. Last year the "Waldorf-Astoria" was the place in the hotel line, but now it is like a merger. The popular fancy has turned to the "Astor" and a slight worth going miles to see is to sit in the main lobby and watch the crowds surge in there to the cafes after the theater. They are well supplied with cafes there, having three downstairs, all immense, and one on the roof.

Coney Island is still the world's wonderland, and attracts over a million people weekly, three hundred thousand having been there last Sunday alone while there were forty thousand at Manhattan Beach and some twenty thousand at Brighton Beach, all amusement sections. Think of it.

Mr. Hall of our firm is here, and besides having booked all the leading attractions for the Macdonough, has joined hands with John Carr in the Northwest in establishing a circuit of the wheel for the California Theater, his new possession in San Francisco. This means that for forty weeks beginning in August the California Theater will have a new burlesque every week, with an entirely different company, scenery, cost, every week.

Companies will also devote a night or two to Oakland each week. This burlesque business on this plan has been an immense success in the East here for the past two years, and I think California is going to like it. The prices will be popular.

I expect to leave here for Chicago about next Sunday, where I will stay a few days and then on to Portland before I return home.

Nothing else I can say now, except that everything here is very "Bang, Bang, Swung." Regards to all inquiring friends.

Yours, etc., GUY C. SMITH.

PROHIBITIONISTS SPECIAL MEETING TO MEET OF UNION

CORNERSTONE OF GREATER TEMPLE TO BE LAID AT NAPA.

The following is a summary of the program of the Prohibition Workers' Conference being held this week in Napa, on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the Greater Prohibition Temple. A matter of special interest will be the reading of a poem composed by Miss Ada Ferris of Carpinteria, who is one of the best temperance story writers in the country. This evening the formal opening exercises will take place, consisting of an address of welcome by C. T. Clark, builder of the temple, and responses by Andrew L. Johnston for the Good Templars, Mrs. H. S. Teynton for the Woman's Prohibition Club, Rev. Walter H. Harris for the Prohibition Alliance, Rev. E. F. Dinsmore for the Prohibition Party, and a representative for the W. C. T. U.

Temporary restraining orders have been granted by the judge, preventing this sort of picketing.

There are to be a special meeting of the Good Templars at 8 o'clock, and this is to consider the draft of a new international constitution. A referendum vote will be taken and sent to the headquarters of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees' International Alliance.

There are to be differences between the old and new constitutions, the latter being chiefly an adaptation of the former to the changed needs and powers of the organization. It is probable that this local will be strongly in favor of the new.

Two restaurant keepers are trying to get injunctions against this local in Judge Ellisworth's court. It is alleged that the men who picket along the entrance of the California and Merchant eating houses interfere with the business of those houses, and that the picketers are bearing the names of the unionized houses in town.

Local No. 85 of the Laundry Workers will hold a meeting this evening at California Hall. The chief business transacted will be the installation of new officers elected three weeks ago. Their names are as follows: Miss May Hampton, president; Miss Annie Hart, secretary; Miss Gladys Hart, treasurer; E. H. Gray, secretary; members of the executive board—George J. Kelly, J. C. Smith, and William W. Miller. Rev. R. H. Spencer, Miss Nellie Hart and Ralph Hall.

There will be a V. O. Neill will administer the oath of office.

There will be an interesting meeting of the executive board of the union, next Wednesday evening. The by-laws are to be gone over and alterations and amendments suggested. A new edition will have to be printed soon and the members of the local think that they might as well have the regulations improved when it can be done for no extra cost.

All changes will be referred to the local for decision before being incorporated in the draft for printing.

BLOCK SYSTEM FOR SOUTHERN PACIFIC

RENO, Nev., July 10.—From Truckee to Ogden every mile of the Southern Pacific Railroad is to be protected by the automatic block system. The safety device is now in operation between Sparks and Truckee, a distance of about forty miles. The first work of construction of the remaining 150 miles or more started yesterday. The first contract calls for the completion of the line to Fernley, forty-five miles east of Reno, within the next thirty days. The new system averages about $2000 a mile, bringing the cost of the line from Truckee to Ogden to $1,500,000. The work is in charge of C. B. Newton, chief electrician of the Salt Lake division. The work will probably require the use of a new system and may not be completed for a year or more.

IRISH SOCIETIES WILL MEET

The United Irish societies composing the Celtic Union will hold their fifth annual picnic and games this year at Shell Mound Park, Berkeley, on Admission Road, Saturday, September 3. The executive committee and officers of the Celtic Union will hold a picnic at the same place last night at their rooms in the Parrott building, appointed sub-committee and a program of other events and Irish dances, with prizes that should bring out the best talent in San Francisco and vicinity. A souvenir program will be printed, which is in charge of a special committee particularly qualified for this work. The general committee will meet every Thursday evening.

TOOK POISON IN FRAWLEY OPENS PRISON TONIGHT

TRUSTY DRINKS WOOD ALCOHOL AND PASSES AWAY.

WELL-KNOWN ACTOR WILL APPEAR AT THE MACDONOUGH.

MARTINEZ, July 10.—As the result of drinking a large quantity of wood alcohol yesterday, Frank Russell, a prisoner in the County Jail, died here. Hugh Ferguson, another prisoner, also drank of the poison, but did not take so much of it. After working upon him for hours, physicians pronounced him out of danger today.

Early after 2 o'clock in the morning Russell died several cases of it, saw the word alcohol on the can, and not knowing that wood alcohol was poison, tasted of it. The taste pleased him, and together with Ferguson, he filled a bottle with the poison and it under his coat, and when they were back in their cell they drank the entire contents.

Shortly after 2 o'clock in the morning Jailer Charles Daly heard Russell groaning and yelling in agony. Ferguson was sent yesterday morning to clean the place. Russell said several cases of it, saw the word alcohol on the can, and not knowing that wood alcohol was poison, tasted of it. The taste pleased him, and together with Ferguson, he filled a bottle with the poison and it under his coat, and when they were back in their cell they drank the entire contents.

INNOCENT MAN GIVEN FREEDOM

SAN RAFAEL, July 10.—That an innocent man has been confined in San Quentin for the past five years was the conclusion of the State Board of Prison Directors when they Saturday granted an unconditional parole to Charles H. Parks of Napa county, who has served twenty years for an alleged assault upon a young girl. Parks had always maintained that he had absolutely no connection with the crime, but it was only this week that absolute proof was furnished the Prison Directors. This proof consists of an affidavit from the girl in which she exonerates Parks completely, and a confession from Dan Regan, an old offender, that he had been the one who committed the crime.

Parks' story is a pitiful one. He is now free, not even bound by the restrictions usually placed on a paroled prisoner, but he is far from happy. His young wife secured a divorce immediately upon his conviction. His meager savings and little home were swallowed up in fighting his case. His brother and aged mother also exchanged their funds in the cause. But what hurts him worst of all are the five years spent behind San Quentin's bars under the stigma of a disgusting felony.

The Directors were unanimous in granting Parks an unconditional parole and have sent a recommendation to the Governor urging that he be pardoned immediately.

JOHN DOLAN SUDDENLY CALLED

The local police were yesterday requested to locate and inform the relatives of John Dolan, aged 25 years, that he was dead in San Jose. The request was made by Sheriff Ross of Santa Clara county, and he informed the officers here that Dolan had been found about two miles outside of San Jose in a dying condition. He was taken at once to the sheriff's office in San Jose, but died before any statement could be taken.

Heat caused death.

Two brothers of the deceased, William and H. D. Dolan, were located at 1718 Seventh street and informed of the death of their brother. They went to San Jose this morning to arrange for the disposition of the remains.

John Dolan was well known in sporting circles of this city. He was a prominent member of the West Oakland Athletic Club and had captained the team in many ring battles given under its auspices.
